Re: Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs,
United States Department of Labor v. Google, Inc.
Case No.: 2017-OFC-00004

Dear Judge Berlin:

Thank you for granting Google's February 15, 2017 request to take the teleconference originally scheduled for today off calendar in light of the illness of Lisa Sween, Google's lead litigation counsel in this matter, who had emergency surgery this week. Google appreciates the Court's flexibility.

We are writing today regarding the deadline for filing Google's Opposition to the pending Motion for Summary Judgment filed by OFCCP. Because the Court has taken the teleconference off calendar, we are supplementing the requests in Google's February 15, 2017 letter. In that letter, Google respectfully requested that the Court permit Google to file its Opposition to OFCCP's pending Motion for Summary Judgment three days after the teleconference, assuming that the teleconference would be rescheduled to a new date. Today, the Court's staff communicated with Google's counsel, and stated that the teleconference will not be rescheduled. Staff asked counsel to provide this supplemental letter requesting an extension to a fixed date for the deadline for Google's Opposition.

For good cause shown due to Ms. Swecn's illness, Google respectfully requests that the Court permit Google to file its Opposition to OFCCP's pending Motion for Summary Judgment on February 24, 2017.

Very truly yours,

JACKSON LEWIS P.C.
